Fasten your uniform buttons and get ready to travel back to the golden age of air travel. In the 1960s, when jets were new, the stewardess was an all-American fantasy: hostess, nurse, cook, therapist and even sex symbol. In this historical portrayal, historian Leslie Goddard, Ph.D., takes you on an exciting, true story about the real-life stewardesses for Pan Am, the most glamorous U.S. airline. Learn about serving the rich and famous, about the strict height, weight and age requirements, about cooking gourmet meals and enduring some wild rides. Buckle up – this is one flight you won't forget.

- Cocktail hour at 5:30, Dinner served at 6:30, presentation at 7:00.
- One free drink ticket for anyone attending in an airline uniform!
- Enjoy a vintage airline themed dinner and a presentation by historian, author, and actress Dr. Leslie Goddard.
